

God's Love for Humanity

☐ Trung, do you know how much I love humanity? All obstacles come from past karma of sentient beings. Letting your body deeply embedded into a filthy place makes it hard for Me to purify it with one cup of water. Mankind has been infiltrated with lustful love for over ten thousand years, thus having less than a year of spiritual transformation is certainly not long enough to become perfectly pure.

☐ Disrespect is a great sin in the eyes of those Divine Beings, I must leave so you won't be punished. I never blame you, because love is much more than blame; My worry is that you will lose merits with Genies, Saints, Immortals, and Buddhas.

☐ Since the beginning of the founding of Heaven and Earth, I have also experienced many austerities because of my love for you, a few times in confinement, and being worried a few times. Nurturing my children to establish the Dao; I also thought that my children would use it as a torch to light themselves up to correct their wrongdoing. Several times I have founded the religions, they have been ruined by my children. I'm sad, My children. I bless you all.

☐ I have seen many of you have the intention to follow the Tao to plan to do unwholesome deeds. Because of My love for humanity, I want to save all of you, therefore I've often accepted many mindless children, so that they have a chance to repent and correct their mistakes, to receive blessings. How could you be saved if you don't want to repent. If you wait until the final days to see Heaven and Hell, then it would be too late. You must diligently evaluate yourself.

What is Tao?

☐ What is Tao? Why is it called Tao? Tao is the way for earthly confined Genies, Saints, Immortals and Buddhas to follow to return to their original positions. Tao is the way for human beings to follow to escape samsara. If not following the Tao, then human beings would have lost their way and their thrones. Tao implies profound meanings, but you have to understand that much first, and then learn the other occult and accurate meanings later.

☐ Tao exists to guide sentient beings to avoid sin and evil paths, guide the right path to reach Nirvana or peaceful places; evaluate yourself to noble level; and escape attachments and samsara. Those who comprehend the Tao are fortunate, those who are not must suffer. Tao is precious and miraculous. Self evaluation is a way to avoid mistakes. Sentient beings, try to understand!

☐ You must know that every human being must know the Tao; not knowing the Tao is not a human. Right and wrong will eventually be separated from each other. If you are still confused, how could you reach the Tao quickly? You must work together, give up all secular desires, then it would be easier to achieve the Tao. I advise to all of you that whoever has a lot of talents, do use them. Don't be shy like a little girl, then the Sacred Light that I have given to you will be wasted.

☐ Sentient beings do not know how precious the Tao is. The Tao is also emanated from the secular world, it receives and synergizes the sacredness from Me to transform itself and expand it across the Universe. Those who comprehend the Tao are predestined people. Those who don't are the unfortunate ones.

☐ If people understand My holy teachings through your words and becomes enlightened, then their fates will remain well, if not, let them follow the evils. This is the precious faith which is not for begging sale.

Origin of the Universe and All Beings

I have told you that: when there was nothing in the universe, the Cosmic Ether gave birth only to Me, and My throne is the Universal Monad.

I divided the Monad into the Dyad (Yin and Yang). Dyad was divided into the Tetrad which was further divided into the Eight Trigrams. The Eight Trigrams was transformed continuously to form the universe. I then divided My Spirit to create sentient beings which include materials, plants, insects, animals, and humans.

There would be nothing in the universe if I did not exist. And if there were no Cosmic Ether, then I would not exist either.

My spirit has created Buddhas, Immortals, Saints, Genies, and sentient beings in this universe. Therefore, you are Me, and I am you.

The Universe was created by Me, and I created Immortals and Buddhas. I have said that My Spirit has created the Universe and sentient beings. I am the Buddhas, and Buddhas are Me. You, my children, are Buddhas, and Buddhas are you. I exist first before you, my children, could exist. Subsequently you exist before Genies, Saints, Immortals, and Buddhas could exist. I have transformed the Eight Trigrams to create the Universe, which is called Dharma. From Dharma, I created all entities and human beings, which are called Humanity. I am the Buddha, the Master of Dharma and Humanity, who founded all religions to teach you ways to reunite with Me.

All human beings, regardless of a race they belong to, have the same Father God who presides on their destiny. Why do you divide because of religious differences as all of you have to suffer together to pay back your karmas on this world?

Earths, Worlds, Heavens, Continents

Reincarnation cycles have transformed materials to plants, from plants to animals. Human beings must be reincarnated countless times to reach a human class. The human class on this earth is further divided into different classes and values. The Emperor class on this earth is lower than the lowest class on the 67th earth. In the 67th earth, human beings are also divided into different classes. The value of each earth keeps increasing higher to the 1st earth, and the 3000 Worlds. From the 3000 Worlds, human beings must pass through the Four Great Continents to enter the 36 Heavens. After passing through the 36 Heavens, human beings must be reincarnated to cultivate through many lives to reach Bach Ngoc Kinh (White Jade Palace) which is called Nirvana by Buddhism.

I've taught you the Saint and evil ways, the decent and indecent ways. I've also taught the right directions for you to follow and not getting lost. You should understand that: in the 3000 Worlds evils do exist and live among all of you. Obviously, evils do exist in the 72 Earths as well.

Hiep Thien Dai (Heavenly Union Palace) is the place where Giao Tong (Pope) comes to communicate with the 36 Heavens, the 3000 Worlds, the 68 Earths and the 10 Palaces of Hell to pray for salvation of Humanity.

Vietnam, A Chosen Country

The Third Amnesty of God, which was founded in the South, has followed the Divine Book of the Three Religions to save sentient beings from suffering circles. It could be true or false, as a small thing is affected by the Divine mechanism.

I gathered all Immortals and Buddhas together to discuss founding the religion (Cao Dai) in the Southern Vietnam. You must obey My teachings, do not fight each other, and unite hearts and minds to amend morality.

I've founded this religion (Cao Dai) in the South to reward this country (Vietnam) which had received many of My rage. I've not only forgiven but also rewarded your country in such a glorious way. No other country on this 68th Earth has had this great honor before.

Founding the genuine religion (Cao Dai) for the Vietnamese is not a small task of Mine. If you understand the precious value of this religion, you must reverently respect it. If you wait to see a successful outcome of this religion establishment to clearly understand the Divine mechanism, you would not be able to make contributions as you could at this time. Because all difficult tasks and challenges often occur at inception time.

In this country (Vietnam), people have been so genuine and peaceful. I've come like Jesus Christ had come to all of you to rid of evil theories and propagate the genuine religion to the whole world.

Only Vietnam has maintained an ancient tradition of ancestor worshiping, although this nation has been dominated by foreign powers since its inception. It is My idea to have Vietnam to maintain its original status forever.

I've founded the genuine religion (Cao Dai) in your country (Vietnam) with great authority to save sentient beings. You and your country should rely on this religion to attain noble ranks.
